

Full Name: DSc, Professor Abdurakhim Abdimutalipovich Nasirov

Specialization: Linguistics (French language)

Biography: Abdurakhim Abdimutalipovich Nasirov is a distinguished Uzbek scholar, professor, and leader in public and higher education specializing in comparative and contrastive linguistics, issues of phraseology, properties of proverbial phraseologisms, language policy, translation studies, and methodology of teaching foreign languages, including the French language. He is the author of more than 120 scientific publications, monographs, textbooks, dictionaries, and research articles published in national and international academic journals.

Professor Nasirov currently serves as Vice-Rector for International Cooperation at Uzbekistan State World Languages University (UzSWLU). Previously, he worked as Associate Professor and Professor at UzSWLU and for more than 15 years held various positions at the Ministry of Public Education and the Education Inspectorate, making a significant contribution to education reforms, research development, and internationalization initiatives.

Professor Nasirov has actively participated in national and international academic projects. In accordance with Resolution No. PR-1875 of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan “On measures to further improve the system of foreign language teaching”, he contributed to coordinating foreign language instruction in the continuous education system, developing the “State Educational Standard for Foreign Languages in the Continuous Education System” and related curricula, and introducing foreign language teaching from Grade 1 in schools.

He has worked with ministries, agencies, and foreign experts on the ratification in Uzbekistan of the Asia-Pacific Regional Convention on the Recognition of Qualifications in Higher Education (Tokyo Convention) and on Uzbekistan’s accession to the Global Convention. Since 2017, he has served as a member of scientific councils at UzSWLU and other universities in the specialties “10.00.06 Comparative Literature, Contrastive Linguistics, Translation Studies” and “13.00.02 Theory and Methodology of Education and Upbringing”.

As a leader responsible for international affairs in higher education, together with the university team, he contributed to the university’s first inclusion in the QS international ranking, where it was ranked 201st in Linguistics and 301st in Modern Languages, and to its 30th place in THE Impact Rankings under SDG 4, “Ensure inclusive and equitable quality education”.

Professor Nasirov has participated in international conferences and professional development programs in France, South Korea, Russia, the United Kingdom, Finland, Malaysia, and the United States. He has presented research at international forums, served as a reviewer and opponent for doctoral dissertations, and contributed to higher education and research policy in Uzbekistan. He is a member of the public councils of several national and international journals, Chair of the Scientific Council for Comparative Literature, Contrastive Linguistics, and Translation Studies at UzSWLU, and a member of the editorial boards of Philology Matters and Foreign Languages in Uzbekistan.

A.Nasirov was awarded the “Xalq ta’limi a’lochisi” Badge of the Republic of Uzbekistan for his contribution to reforms in public education and the Order of Academic Palms of the French Republic for his contribution to educational cooperation between Uzbekistan and France and to the teaching of French in Uzbekistan. Professor Nasirov continues to collaborate with foreign universities, international organizations, research institutes, and scholars, contributing to interdisciplinary research, innovation in education, and global academic partnerships.

Email: abduraximjon12@gmail.com, a.nasirov@uzswlu.uz

Photo:

Social Links (Usernames):

- Telegram: +998 99 8574213
- WhatsApp: +998 99 8574213
- Google Scholar: Abduraxim Nasirov
- ORCID: <https://orcid.org/0009-0005-9285-4592>